

READING & DICTATION

Read the following words & no. of syllable(s).

07. One evening, Simple Simon met a pie man. The pie man was on his way to a food fair in the village.

"Dear pie man, let me taste one of your pies," said Simple Simon.

"Alright, but first you have to give me a penny. Then I will give you a pie," said the pie man. "I'm sorry but I don't have any money," said Simple Simon. The pie man smiled and left Simple Simon standing by the roadside. Simon did not have a pie from the pie-man who did not give pie to the Simon because Simon did not give penny to the pie-man.

08. There lived a crow on a tree top. Everyday he used to watch with utter wonder the acts of an eagle.

The eagle had a nest high up on a mountain. He used to swoop down from there to get hold of a lamb and fly up again and all in one go.

The crow was amazed by the feat of the eagle.

One day he was so excited that he wanted to imitate the eagle. So up he flew as high as he could. From there he began to swoop down. He came down and down. But alas, he could not control himself. He crashed on the ground and broke his beak.
